The following information is optional:

Have you had a prior or continuing representation in other matters of one or more of the clients you propose to represent, and is there a relationship between those other matter(s) and the proceeding for which you seek admission?

Yes. I currently represent two of the clients in other matters. I represent the plaintiffs, including the Mississippi State Conference in the NAACP, before this Court in Mississippi State Conference of the NAACP v. State Board of Election Commissioners, 3:22-cv-734. I also represent the Louisiana State Conference of the NAACP in Allen v. State of Louisiana, which is before the Middle District of Louisiana. None of the other matters in which I have represented the clients in this case relates to this proceeding.

Do you have any special experience, expertise, or other factor that you believe makes it particularly desirable that you be permitted to represent the client(s) you propose to represent in this case?

I have engaged in numerous Administrative Procedure Act cases. In addition, Plaintiffs have alleged that the Medicate anti-racism plan provision is in conflict with the Fourteenth Amendment and with state anti-discrimination laws and I have relevant experience in cases alleging racial discrimination until the Equal Protection Clause both on the side of the Plaintiffs and that of the Defendants.
